

It has been great not having telemarketing calls. We were getting as many as 15 calls a day. My husband is ill with emphysema and the unnecessary calls interrupt his sleep and whatever peace he is able to garner out of a day. Please don't allow any change to our no call list.